

COOKIE POLICY

Last updated: October 3, 2022

INTRODUCTION

When you visit or access our website, mobile application or when you interact or engage with any other service we provide (collectively, our "Services"), we will use (and authorize third parties to use) web beacons, cookies, pixel tags, scripts, tags, API and other technologies ("Tracking Technologies"), as described in this policy ("Cookie Policy").

The use of Tracking Technologies allows us to automatically collect information about you and your online behavior to enhance your navigation on our Services, improve our Services' performance and customize your experience on them. We also use this information to collect statistics about the usage of our Services, perform analytics, deliver content which is tailored to your interests and to administer the Services to our users and partners.

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small text files (composed only of letters and numbers) that a web server places on your computer or mobile device when you visit a webpage.

Cookies are widely used in order to make websites work in an efficient way. The use of cookies allows you to navigate between pages efficiently. Cookies remember your preferences, and make the interaction between you and the Services smoother and more efficient.

When used, a cookie can help make our Services more user-friendly, for example by remembering your language preferences and settings. You can find more information about cookies at www.allaboutcookies.org.

TYPES OF TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES

There are five main types of Tracking Technologies:

Strictly necessary Tracking Technologies - These Tracking Technologies are essential to enable you to login, navigate around and use the features of our Services, or to provide a service requested by you (such as your username). We do not need to obtain your consent in order to use these Tracking Technologies. These Tracking Technologies can be used for security and integrity reasons - for example to detect violation of our policies and for support or security features.

Functionality Tracking Technologies - These Tracking Technologies allow our Services to remember choices you make (such as your language) and provide enhanced and personalized features. For example, these Tracking Technologies are used for authentication (to remember when you are logged-in) and support other features of our Services.

Performance Tracking Technologies - These Tracking Technologies collect information about your online activity (for example the duration of your visit on our Services), including behavioral data and content engagement metrics. These Tracking Technologies are used for analytics, research and to perform statistics (based on aggregated information).

Marketing or Advertising Tracking Technologies - These Tracking Technologies are used to deliver tailored offers and advertisements to you, based on your derived interests, as well as to perform email marketing campaigns. They can also be used to limit the number of times you see an advertisement as well as help measure the effectiveness of the advertising campaign. They are usually placed by our advertisers (for example advertising networks) and provide them insights about the people who see and interact with their ads, visit their websites or use their app.

Social media Tracking Technologies - Our website includes social media features, such as a Facebook or Twitter "Share" buttons, or third party log-in services. Your interactions with these features are governed by the privacy statement of the company providing these features.
